September saw us driving down to Summerland Point to enjoy a postponed lunch at the Olive Tree Brasserie in Cam's Boulevard. It was well worth the wait. A lovely venue, extensive menu and good company – we all enjoyed the experience. Perhaps, some more than others, with their Pimm's No.1. Cocktails!

Coffee with Maxine at the Sixteens provided another opportunity to relax and chat over coffee and cake. Very indulgent!

October is the time to start thinking about next year and how YOU might be able to assist in the running of this club. At the AGM in March committee members will be elected. Please give some thought to nominating for one of the positions. As a new committee member, I can guarantee that you will be made most welcome. Nomination forms will be available with the November Bulletin.

WHAT'S HAPPENING THIS MONTH AND NEXT?

Monday, October 17: There is still time to join The Postman's Run on the Hawkesbury, if you pay at Monday's meeting. The cost of the ferry ride is $49.00 and includes morning tea with Anzac biscuits, followed by a Ploughman's Lunch. The ferry leaves at 10.00 am and the train departs Broadmeadow at 7.41, Cardiff at 7.51 and Fassifern at 8.05.

Thursday, October 27: Come along at 10.30 and join Maxine's morning tea/coffee at the Sixteens. With good company, cakes and a chat, it's a pleasant morning.

Monday, November 21: Beverley has organized a visit to Mary MacKillop Place in North Sydney. The museum is housed in the original 'Practice School' for novices built in the 1900s. It now offers visitors a window into the mid colonial to the pre Federation period of Australian history. The tomb of Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop is in the Memorial Chapel and together with the museum, they celebrate the work of Australia's first Saint and the co-founder of the order, Julian Tenison Woods. Beverley needs to know at Monday's meeting, if you wish to attend. The entry fee is $8.00 and the bus will cost $40.00 if we have 30 people attending. There will probably be a quick cuppa on the way down and lunch at North Sydney.

Monday, December 12: Christmas Lunch at Brown Sugar 11.00 for 11.30 start.

The cost is $45.00 per person for a 2 course lunch with wine, beer, soft drinks, tea and coffee. There will also be raffle tickets and gifts. This is not only great value but will also provide the opportunity for a great end-of-year celebration. Tables will be a maximum of 10. Now is the time to get your names together and give your table groups to Margaret Hobson.

To pay by bank transfer to the Probus Club Account use:

BSB: 650 000

And finally, make a note of this date:

Belmont Bay Ladies Probus has invited us to join them on Sunday, February 5 at 11.15 for a 2 course luncheon at Swansea RSL. The cost is $60.00 and must be paid before Christmas. The entertainment will be "Heaven and Earth Legends Show" with Wayne Cooper and his band. Drinks at own expense. If you are interested, let Beverley know at Monday's meeting.
